4. 6.8.2008 Perused the report which has been received indicating that the case has been committed to the court of Sessions on 29.7.2008.

It is Painful to know that the case was sent for commitment to the court of Shri Pankaj Mishra, Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ara, after passing the order of cognizance by the chief Judicial Magistrate and the learned Magistrate could not commit the case to the court of Sessions till 9.1.2007 when the record was transferred to the court of Shri Brajesh Narain Mishra who received the file of the case on 10.1.2007 who also did not commit the case merely because the police papers were not supplied to the accused persons. It is painful that police papers are not being supplied to the accused and the cases remain pending only for that. In this case it took two years to supply the police papers to the accused persons. There could be many reasons
